

Be a language exchange partner "Tutoring program"

While studying at Dankook University as an exchange student, you will have an opportunity to lead a conversation class of your own language for Dankook University undergraduate students.

Benefits

Free on-campus accommodation during the teaching semester

Meet more of Korean students and gain insight into Korean culture

Free Korean language course with transferable 10 credits per semester

Teaching Hours

40 hours
in total per semester

Available Languages

English, Spanish, Mandarin,
Russian, Japanese,
German, and French

How to Apply

Submit program application along with student exchange application.

DKU DANKOOK UNIVERSITY
Office of International Affairs

For further information, please contact the international office at your home university.
This is open to exchange students studying regular semesters at Dankook University.
Interested students should apply via home university.